DYNAMITE LETS GO, TWO MEN HURT

Premature Explosion of Charge in Stone Quarry Near Moscow Results in Serious Injuries

G. BARLOW MAY NOT RECOVER

Amputation of Right Leg. Broken in Two Places. May Prove Necessary. —Harry Spalding Out, Bruised

Gabriel Barlow, age 70, was seriously injured and Harry Spalding, age 45, was badly cut and bruised when a charge of dynamite exploded prematurely at the stone quarry near Moscow at noon Wednesday.

Both men are in a serious condition, but the extent of the injuries suffered by the older man may prove fatal.

They were engaged in breaking up the rocks at the stone quarry, located in the southwest part of the county, near Moscow. When the explosion happened, the rocks and pieces of earth went in all directions, and the two men were in the midst of it.

Mr. Barlow received a severe blow on his right leg, breaking it in two places between the ankle and knee and on account of his advanced age it was thought that an amputation would be necessary. Dr. W. T. Lampton of Milroy attended the men.

Mr. Barlow also was badly bruised and shaken, and may develop some internal complications. Mr. Spalding, who was within five feet of the charge, was shot by pieces of rock that struck him in the face and right side of his body, also bruising and cutting him.

Both men were almost holding their charge when in some manner the fuse burned to the cap before they were aware of the fact that it was upon them.

Mr. Barlow, the older man, was preparing to place the charge in the rocks, when the explosion happened and he received the full force, that broke his leg, and otherwise injured him.

LEADING DEMOCRATS OF ILLINOIS GREET DAVIS

PARADE IN LOOP DISTRICT

Chicago, Sept. 18—Leading Democrats of Illinois greeted John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, on his arrival from Des Moines here today. George W. Brennan, Illinois "boss," and national Committeeman Col. A. A. Sprague, Democratic candidate for United States senator, and others headed a huge crowd and several bands in the procession to the office of Mayor Dever.

After a few moments with Dever, Davis was paraded through the Loop to his hotel. Davis speaks in the stockyards district tonight.

On board Davis special enroute to Chicago, Sept. 18—Since crossing the Mississippi, John W. Davis, Democratic standard bearer has espoused Woodrow Wilson's policies one by one, until today as he turns eastward he stands for the same principles that won the west for Wilson in 1916.

Davis advisers are somewhat worried because the candidate has gone a step farther in following the leadership of Wilson. His enthusiastic advocacy of American membership in the League of Nations which brought the downfall of Wilson in 1919 and the defeat of James M. Cox in 1920 gives them concern because of the lingering hostility to the League in the east.

Indiana is 18th Among States in Export Trade

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18—Indiana stood eighteenth among the states in export trade for the first six months of 1924, according to figures of the department of commerce at Washington, received here today.

Indiana's total export business was $28,983,891. Automobile commodities led in exports, amounting to $5,965,333.

LAND AT ST. JOSEPH, MO.

World Flyers Intend to go on to Muskogee, Okla., this Afternoon

(By United Press)

Rosecrans Flying Field, St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 18—The army round the world flyers arrived over St. Joseph at 12:19 p. m. and landed at 12:29 p. m. The planes left Omaha at 10:33 a. m. After a brief stop here the flyers plan a hop off for Muskogee, Oklahoma, this afternoon.

Lieut. Lowell Smith, flight commander, was the first to land followed by Lieuts. Wade and Nelson and the four escort planes.

As the big air cruisers landed, a crowd of 10,000 scrambled out to greet the pilots.

SEEKS TO PLACE BLAME ON HOLMES

Defense Attempts to Show he is Responsible for Separation For Which he Blames Buell

HIS ILLNESS DISCUSSED

Physicians not Permitted to Testify Regarding Ailment—Evidence in Alienation Suit

The defense today took their line at the testimony in the $10,000 alienation suit, being tried in the circuit court, in which Harley D. Holmes is plaintiff and Albert Buell, defendant, and in which the plaintiff charges the defendant with stealing his wife's affection from him.

A portion of the evidence being introduced today by the defense attempted to show that the defendant was not responsible for the alleged stolen affections, but that the plaintiff himself had caused the separation.

Intimations along this line indicated that the defense would charge the plaintiff with having violated his marriage vows with his wife, over whom the law suit is based. His crippled condition, being unable to walk, was today being attacked by the attorneys for the defense as being the direct cause for the separation, although medical authority was not permitted to testify in the case.

Frank Hall, a witness for the defendant, testified that he had accompanied the plaintiff on a visit to the office of Dr. Houghland several years ago, and witnessed the examination. He stated that Holmes was nystrope on his feet and shaky with his hands, at that time. He did not hear what the physician had analyzed the ailment.

Dr. Houghland, when he testified, was unable to answer questions that concerned the ailment, because of objections offered by the plaintiff's attorneys, and which were sustained by the court. The court ruled that other persons who had direct knowledge of the facts, could testify along that line, but it is not proper for a physician to disclose private treatments of a patient.

It was clearly brought out today during the trial as other witnesses were examined that the defense intended to launch their attack on the plaintiff for having "sown wild oats" earlier in life, and that his wife had left him, and the defendant had not stolen the affections.

Hall, when he testified, said that on one occasion several years ago, Holmes had told him that he wished he had never married, and remarked, according to the witness, that "he had been in bad," some (Continued on Page Three)

REVENUE BUREAU PROBE ON

Resolution Adopted Empowering Counsel to Examine Reports

Washington, Sept. 18—With Secretary Mellon present, open hearings of the internal revenue bureau got under way today.

The first act of the committee was to adopt a resolution empowering its counsel and agents to requisition or copy such income tax returns as the committee desires to examine.

Senator King of Utah served a notice that a similar resolution empowering each of the committee to delve into the prohibition bureau, would be adopted later. Mellon assented to this.

THIS IS THE FLASHY ONE

ASKS ALIMONY IN SUM OF $15,000

Dorothy Brooks, Who Was 16 Years Old When Married, Seeks Divorce From Don Brooks, 56

WANTS $25 A WEEK SUPPORT

Alleges Husband, on Account of His Age, Was Morose and Would Not Accompany Her Places

A complaint for divorce was filed today in the circuit court by Dorothy Brooks against Don C. Brooks, farmer living east of Rushville, in which the plaintiff seeks $15,000 alimony and $25 a week support.

The complaint is quite lengthy and sets forth that they were married April 9, 1919 and separated September 12 of this year. She was 16 years old when married, and is 21 now, according to the suit, and he is 56 years old.

One of the chief allegations contained in the action says that the disparity in years has caused her life to be very lonely and devoid of interest.

On account of his age, she says, he failed to accompany her to places that would entertain them or afford a diversion, and that because of his morose disposition, they never had company or acquaintances to visit them.

When she is ill, he fails to attend to her, or provide a nurse, according to the suit, and for the past year he is charged with having failed to co-habit with her.

In her action, she says the defendant is quite wealthy, and that her physical condition does not enable her to work, and she seeks $25 a week support, and alimony in the sum of $15,000.

Scout Notes

Next Tuesday afternoon and evening all troops will meet for reorganization and to talk over plans for the year.

At four o'clock troop two will meet, with troop four following at five o'clock. After supper boys from troops one and three will meet together at seven-thirty o'clock. All of these meetings will be held at the Havens School and the boys are requested to enter the building by way of the fire escape.

OUR DAILY BOOST

When a county can produce $3,000,000 worth of corn in one year and at the same time raise other grains and market livestock on a scale that places it ahead of any other county, the county is on the highway to prosperity.

Conservative estimates place the Rush county corn crop at three million bushels this year and the price will be $1 per bushel, if not more, according to present indications.

The milestones denoting hard times have been passed.

SERVICE CHARGE ORDER RESCINDED

Spiceland And Mays Telephone Subscribers Will Not Have to Pay Connection Fee of $2

COMPANY TO MAKE REBATES

Many Who Withdrew When New Rates Became Effective August 1 are Expected to Return

On the petition of the Spiceland Commercial club, the public service commission of Indiana has rescinded its order providing for a service connection charge of $2 per connection and ordered a rebate of such charges paid since August 1 when the order became effective, along with a new schedule of rates.

A copy of the order was received here today from the state commission. It affects patrons of the Spiceland and Mays exchanges, which are owned by the Spiceland company.

Many subscribers have had their phones removed since the higher rates went into effect, but it is believed that the rescinding of the service connection charge will have the effect of bringing many of the old subscribers back.

On June 27, 1924, the commission issued its original order in this case, in which the Spiceland Cooperative Telephone company was authorized to increase its rates and establish a service connection charge of $2.00 per connection.

Immediately after the date set for the order to go into effect, many telephones were ordered removed. On August 29, 1924, the Commercial club of Spiceland, Indiana, passed the following resolution, which was duly certified and transmitted to the commission:

"Spiceland, Indiana, August 29, 1924.

"Be it resolved that the President and Secretary are hereby authorized on behalf of the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana, to petition the Public Service Commission of Indiana, asking that they order the Spiceland Cooperative Telephone Company of Spiceland, Indiana to discontinue all service connection charges for a period of 6 months.

"I certify that the above is a true and correct copy of a resolution unanimously adopted by the members of the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana at a meeting held by them August 28, 1924.

"(Signed) V. T. Davis, Secretary." Under date of September 11, 1924. (Continued on Page Seven)

Views Wreckage of His Car and Refuses Assistance

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 18—His automobile completely wrecked by the west bound Twentieth Century Limited, Ray Wilson, 29, escaped with but minor bruises at Elmsberger today. Hurled from the car by the impact Wilson got to his feet, viewed the wreckage and walked to his home refusing a lift offered by motorists.

BRING UP NAVY SEA POWER

American Legion Convention Resolutions Urge Action by Congress

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 18—The American Legion national convention today urged congress and the navy department to bring the United States navy sea power up to the terms of the 5-5-3 ratio of the naval armament agreement.

POULTRY SCHOOL IN COUNTY LIKELY

Petition For One to be Sent to Purdue Following Tour of County With Prof. L. L. Jones

THREE FARMS ARE VISITED

Constructive Criticism and Suggestions for Development—School Attendance to be Guaranteed

A poultry school for Rush county will probably be the outcome of the poultry tour conducted by Prof. Lloyd L. Jones of the agricultural extension department of Purdue university Wednesday afternoon.

Three Rush county poultry farms were visited during the tour and Prof. Jones offered constructive criticism and suggestions regarding their development.

It was announced during the tour that Purdue was planning a series of two-day poultry schools in Indiana counties next winter and that every county that guarantees an attendance of fifty will get one of the schools.

Sentiment prevailed among those on the tour that one could be supported in this county and Herschel VanMatre, county agent, was requested to place Rush county's petition for one at once. The school will be held between December 1 and the middle of next March.

The tour started at Clifford Powers' farm northwest of Milroy, in Anderson township, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. There the tourists found a new poultry house 40 by 19 feet the construction of which Prof. Jones said he could not criticize.

In a short talk Prof. Jones pointed out a number of things over which there had been disagreement, regarding poultry house construction, and discussed the advantages and disadvantages of each.

The crowd was taken to a pen of capons belonging to Mr. Powers and Prof. Jones talked for a few minutes on the possibilities of feeding, developing and marketing them.

The party arrived at Ray Selby's farm, a quarter of a mile west of the Powers farm, at 2:15. Mr. Selby has recently built a new poultry house and remodeled an old one. Prof. Jones went into detail in regard to the remodeling of old houses, in order to get the best results from them.

Mr. Selby had a number of White Leghorn hens penned up and Prof. Jones handled them and pointed out characteristics of hens from which high egg production could be expected. He emphasized the confirmation of the male and the necessity of giving him more than ordinary consideration.

SEVENTEEN ATTEND CLINIC

One Held Wednesday is Best of Series in County This Year

The tuberculosis clinic held at Dr. Frank H. Green's office Wednesday was the best of the three held in Rush county this year, according to a report from the Rush County Tuberculosis association, under whose auspices it was held.

Seventeen patients visited the clinic during the day and there was a fine response from physicians over the county to the appeal for co-operation. Miss Hollowell, Rushville visiting nurse, assisted.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. E. M. Amos of Indianapolis.

IS SURPRISED TO FIND LAND CHEAP

Charles Norris of Des Moines, Iowa, Formerly of This City, Comments on The Reasons

WHAT IOWA LAND BRINGS

Carries Authentic Reports to Show That Prices Range From $150 to $312.50 an Acre

Charles Norris of Des Moines, Iowa, formerly of this city, was astonished when he returned here for a visit, to find that Rush county land was selling so cheap, compared with Iowa land.

He carries with him a clipping from a Des Moines paper reporting sales of farm land ranging in price from $150 to $312.50.

"I soon found the reason for Rush county farm land selling so cheap," said Mr. Norris. "I stopped on the corner one day and asked a Rush county farmer what land could be bought for. He told me that it was selling around $100 an acre, but that it was not worth that much.

"That in a few words explains why Rush county land has not been bringing the prices that Iowa land has." Following are dispatches from Iowa towns and cities, printed in a Des Moines paper, which are the evidence of the high prices prevailing there:

Boone, Ia.—That land in Boone county as well as in other sections of the state is "coming back" is evident from recent sales. The 100 acre farm of Charles Jennings located one mile south of the Jordell crossing has just been sold to Judge H. E. Fry at $195 per acre. This is a sale for cash and does not involve any trade.

Recently the farm home of Judge Fry was struck by a storm and the buildings are now being wrecked and the material will be used to improve the Jennings' place, which, however, is already well improved. This purchase will give Judge Fry a farm of 282 acres on the Daniel Boone Trail, one of the best locations in this section of Iowa.

Farmers and real estate men are beginning to take notice of the higher prices paid for corn and other produce, local bankers state. This fact added to the splendid prospects for corn in this section of Iowa is calling attention of investors to Iowa land.

CRUSHING BLOW BY ATTACKING CHINESE

U. S. Marines and Other International Troops Mobilize for Protection of Countrymen

PANIC IN WAR ZONE EXPECTED

(By United Press)

Shanghai (9:30 p. m.) Sept. 18—United States Marines and other international troops were mobilizing for defense of their countrymen in the foreign settlements tonight, with a panic rash to Chinese from the war zone, expected at any moment.

The anticipated crushing blow against General Shiang's army before Shanghai, was struck this afternoon. His forces were routed and the victorious attacking troops broke through the lines and advanced on the city.

General Yuan launched an irresistible attack today after artillery preparations and Che Kiang's lines crumbled.

A mob of retreating soldiers and civilians bore back upon Shanghai and it was feared they would overrun the thin line of guards. More than 1,000 international marines and sailors were ordered to the gates and barriers of the settlements.

The victorious Chi Li troops headed a drive for the Woo Sung forts, nearest the sector guarded by American marines.

Three American destroyers, their guns trained on the forts were stripped for action and standing by.

Exact details of the fighting were not available.

LAUNCHES PLANS FOR INITIATIONS OF 500

Fortieth Anniversary Committee of Murat Shriners Organize Intensive Drive

CEREMONIAL DATE DEC. 5

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18.—Launching a campaign with the slogan "five hundred new members for December", the Fortieth Anniversary committee of Murat Temple of Mystic Shrine has organized what promises to be an intensive drive throughout the oasis of Indiana to round up "sons of the desert" who are willing to enter the caravan now forming to traverse the hot sands of the desert to the Shriners' Mecca.

Although the ceremonial date has been fixed for Friday, Dec. 5th "and several Arabic moons are yet to pass over the mosque of Murat" as the eloquent potentate, Charles J. Orison, puts it, it is announced that a complete campaign organization is being formed to insure the success of the forthcoming ceremonial session. Robert L. Elder has been appointed general chairman of the ceremonial membership committee and Edgar D. Hart secretary. Captains are being chosen for virtually every village, town and city in Indiana, it is announced, with the understanding that the drive will encompass every county with the exception of Vanderburg, Vigo, Allen and Lake, where sister temples of the Shrine exercise exclusive dominion.

RAGWEED IS POOR SILAGE

Bitterness May Affect Taste And Quality of Milk

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 16.—On account of the unusually abundant growth of ragweed in cornfields due to the abnormal weather conditions of the past season, a number of inquiries have been received by G. A. Williams of the dairy extension staff of Purdue university regarding the effect of ragweed in silage. The juice of ragweed is exceedingly bitter and the objectionable flavor is apt to enter the milk when silage containing considerable quantities of ragweed is fed to dairy animals.

In addition, the presence of ragweed in the silage may impart a bad odor to dairy products. The bitter properties of ragweed are so well known that the plant is commonly called bitterweed in some parts of the country.

Silage can be fed safely to beef animals even if it contains ragweed.

Lafayette — Harold Alford held a stick of wood while his boy companion saw how close he could come with a hatchet. He came too close and Harold lost one finger tip and three other fingers were badly hurt.

Ottawa—Eugene Ogathorp could not work his pump. The handle would go up and down but no water came forth. He found a four foot black snake in the pipe.

Portland—Portland is looking for the nearest motorist. According to contractors he drove his automobile on a newly paved cement street. The street will have to be resurfaced.

Shelbyville—Clarence Baker, state motor policeman, believes in an eye for an eye. When David and Milton H. Justus, game wardens, arrested his father, Joseph Baker, for illegal seining, he arrested the Justus brothers for failure to have an auto license.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION FOR AUTO DRIVERS A FUTURE POSSIBILITY

What do the motor vehicle owners of Rush county think about the proposed legislation which would require all drivers to pass a physical examination and to pay a fee for a driver's license which license might be suspended with severe penalties for law violations?

This question is propounded at the request of the Hoosier State Auto Association, the state-wide organization of automobile owners, which seeks to feel the pulse of motorists throughout Indiana on this important matter.

"We are assuming that because of the frequent discussion of the drivers' license matter that the people generally are familiar with what is meant to them," M. E. Noblet, secretary of the association states in a bulletin just issued. "Our directors, representing every congressional district in the state, and the officers and directors of affiliated motor clubs and branch organizations of our association are eager to get their ears to the ground and to hear from owners generally on this matter. In the meantime we are making a study of the operation of similar laws in other states."

"The point is," Noblet continued, "Whether a drivers license law with rigid punishments provided, would serve to reduce accidents and fatalities on the highways of Indiana. A driver who has operated a car for years and might be physically and mentally sound and know all the laws by heart, and yet be the cause of an accident by some single reckless a hurry and steps on his gas too move or because he gets in too big strong at the wrong place. True, his license to drive could be suspended and he might be severely punished, but would this prevent accidents or reduce them?

"In some states where licenses are required the driver must pay a fee of $2 to obtain the license after due examination. There are probably who can and do drive motor vehicles of some sort and the $2 fee would create a fund of approximately $2,000,000. No suggestion has been made in the discussion concerning a license as to what disposition might be made of such money, although it is conceivable that a good portion of this amount might be required to pay fees for examiners."

The Hoosier A. A. officials assert they are maintaining an open mind on this subject, Today marked the third day of the trial. More interest was being shown in the case today, as witnesses were here from Connersville and Franklin county in the vicinity of Metamora, where the parties reside.

Graydon Holmes, 13-year-old son of the plaintiff, was a witness for the defense, and admitted that he had not had any visits with his father for five years, and that he is living with his mother, keeping house for Mr. Buell, the defendant in the case.

On cross examination, the boy also stated that his father had failed to provide or support him, and that his mother was providing the support.

The law forbids the third person, in this case, Mrs. Holmes, from testifying.

CAMPAIGN DAY BY DAY

(By United Press)

Democratic leaders learned with mingled feelings John W. Davis's open espousal of Woodrow Wilson's policies. The candidate's declaration in favor of the League of Nations before a group of Iowa women cheered a considerable faction of the party and disheartened others who bore in mind Cox's defeat in 1920 on the same issue.

Interest in the independent campaign centered on a speech by Senator LaFollette at Madison Square Garden in New York tonight.

"Fighting Bob" is expected to cite evidences of mis-rule in the two old parties and generally flay the activities of the present government. Senator Wheeler, his running mate, continued his attack on Daugherty and the "Ohio gang" in his Ohio tour.

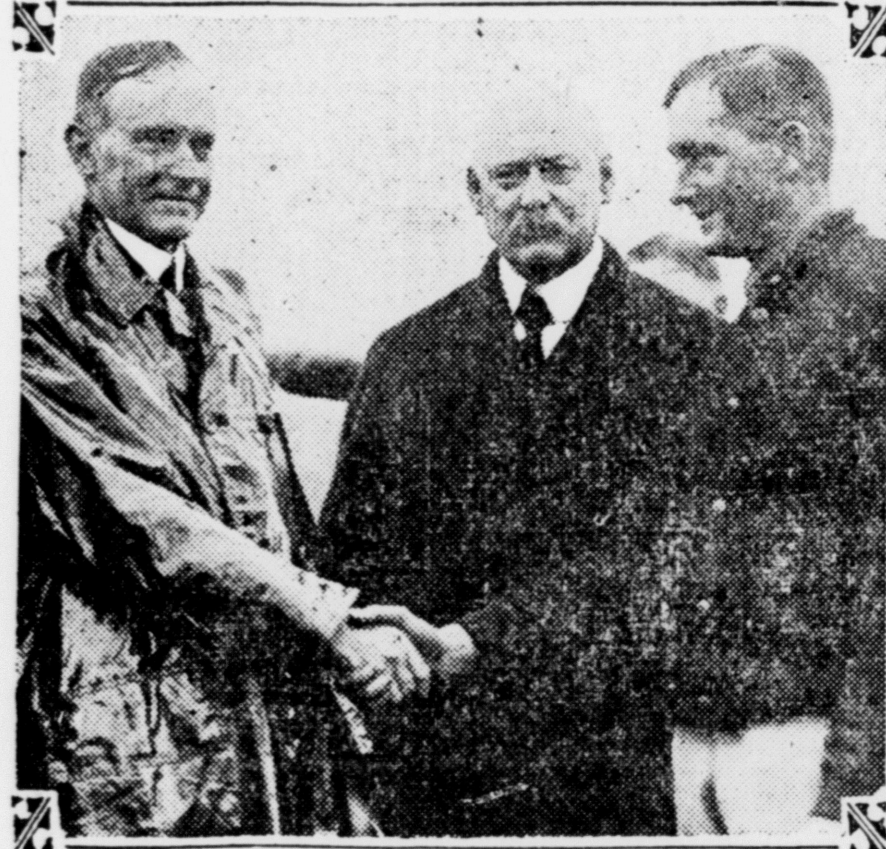

Republican managers were encouraged at first results of the Literary Digest's poll of the nation's voters. They pointed out the poll is compared to that of 1920, shows only a slight loss for Coolidge as against the vote for Harding.

BIBLE THOUGHT

FOR TODAY

Bible Thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in later years

The feast of harmony:—Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife:—Proverbs

Prayer:—O our God, may Thy spirit so possess us that we shall live righteously, and then

Thou wilt make even our enemies to be at peace with us.

Well Earned Prosperity

One of the reasons for the firm business confidence that now exists, even though this is presidential year, lies in the fact that our present prosperity and our bright future prospects are based on the products of the soil. That is real American prosperity, substantial and well earned.

Money is plentiful, credits are high and unemployment is at a minimum.

These are the groundwork for the belief prevailing that the business tide is coming in rapidly.

There is ample ground for the premise that times are better because of the improvement in agriculture.

The midwest's wheat crop is probably the best ever grown, exceeding last year's crop by 119,981,000 bushels. At the average farm price of August 1, this crop had a value of $133,500,000 greater than the value of the 1923 crop. This enables the farmer to re-establish his credits and to become a big factor in the buying market.

The corn crop gives promise of exceeding the record established by the wheat crop. If weather conditions continue favorable, despite the poor start, the yield will average good and the price that is in prospect will be a further aid in putting the farmer back on his feet financially.

Dollar corn is now predicted and many foresee even higher prices for the great midwest crop, that is doing its part in the great movement to restore the tiller of the soil to his rightful position.

It is estimated that the Rush county

corn crop will make three million bushels. Three million dollars poured into the laps of Rush county farmers will be a tidy sum and it will be welcome to those who have seen hard times for the past four years.

Clean Pictures

The Association of Motion Picture

Producers, Inc., composed of the leading producers and distributors, has adopted resolutions pledging its members not to produce or promote the production, distribute or distribution, exhibit or promote the exhibition or aid in any way whatsoever in the production, distribution or exhibition of motion pictures which, "because of the unfit character of title, story, exploitation or picture itself, do not meet the requirements" of what amounts to a code of ethics adopted by the association.

The preamble to the resolutions places the members of the association back of a "continuing effort to establish and maintain the highest possible moral and artistic standards of motion picture production." It is set forth that every attempt will be made to prevent the prevalent type of book and play to become the prevalent type of picture.

Will H. Hay, the czar of moviedom, is credited with bringing about the changed attitude of the producers and distributors. It all sounds very interesting, but what the public wants to see is the fruits of the announced intentions of the producers to establish the "highest possible moral" standards in the industry.

There is plenty of room for improvement in the motion picture industry and everyone who enjoys a good, clean show is pulling for the organization to live up to its code of ethics.

The lurid sex plays that have replaced the wild western holdup dramas of a few years ago have no place on the screen. They are frequently mild compared with that which they are pictured to be in the advance announcements.

Improvement in advertising methods of the distributors would be a great aid to the producers in living up to their avowed purpose.

day. For these many months, his

There will be no services at the

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Women's progress in politics will be demonstrated within the next few weeks of the presidential campaign. For the first time in history, the wives of candidates on a presidential ticket will take to the stump as real political helpmates to their husbands.

The women who will blaze this new trail of political action will be Mrs. Belle La Follette and Mrs. Lulu Wheeler, wives of the Independent candidates for president and vice president respectively.

Mrs. La Follette's first speech of the campaign probably will be made at an Independent-Progressive rally scheduled for some near-by point in Maryland. Mrs. Wheeler, who will accompany her husband on his tour into the middle west and west, will address gatherings, particularly of women, in the same towns where Senator Wheeler speaks.

ALTHOUGH this will be a new experience for the nation—having the wives of presidential and vice presidential candidates speaking from the stump—it will be no new experience for the two women.

Campaigning for their husbands is an old story to them. True, this will be their first venture as orators in a national campaign. But as each of them has always been her husband's right-hand assistant in campaigns for minor offices, even including their campaigns for the Senate, they see no reason why they should not participate equally now that their husbands head a presidential ticket.

Being both progressive and independent wives, they're going to proceed on that basis. Conservative folks may frown, but they don't expect to win the conservative vote for their ticket, anyway!

THIS move by the wives of the Independent candidates may be the solution to the puzzle that has been bothering the political managers of all the parties, which puzzle is:

"How can we stir the interest of the women voters?"

All of the parties, of course, have "Women's Bureaus," with women in charge, trying to stir up some semblance of enthusiasm among the women. But although the women were fighting tooth and toenail a few years ago for the ballot, now that they've got it they're seemingly trying to conserve it as a sort of souvenir instead of using it, the candidates complain.

This is particularly true of the very organizations that were in the thickest of the fight for equal suffrage.

The National Women's Party and the National League of Women Voters, for instance, are both standing on the sidelines, declining to be enticed into any of the rival political camps.

Officials and influential members of these organizations say they must not side either with Republicans, Democrats or Independents lest their action be misconstrued. Since their organizations are non-partisan, they must be non-committal.

A CONCENTRATED campaign to crack this reserve on the part of women's organizations is under way by the women's bureaus of all three political outfits.

So far as winning an open endorsement for any candidate, however, by any of the national woman suffrage organizations, the outlook is altogether bleak. There will be no effort, on the part of any of them, to "deliver" the women's vote. Probably they know they couldn't deliver, even if they promised. So they decline to raise any false hopes.

It is the individual women, not the organizations of women, that will decide where the women's vote will land.

And, understanding feminine psychology better than the masculine campaigners, it is the vote of individual women Mrs. La Follette and Mrs. Wheeler will invite from the stump.

(By United Press)

French Lick, Ind., Sept. 18—Out of comparative inobscure two new golf stars loomed suddenly today as strong contenders for the title in the national professional golf tournament.

The new bidders for national honors are Larry Nabholz, of Lima, O., and Ray Derr, Glenside, Pa., both youthful players and little known in the world of golf.

Nabholz dethroned Gene Sarazen, Briarcliffe, N. Y., twice wearer of the professional crown, in an exhibition of brilliant golf yesterday and meets Henry Ciuci, White Plains, N. Y., in the third round of match play today.

Nabholz fought an uphill battle to down Sarazen, who was two up at the end of morning play. At the 27th hole the Ohioan overcame the lead and outplayed Sarazen on the way in.

Bobby Cruickshank, Westfield, N. J., furnished another upset when he fell before the sensational finish of Derr after being up most of the day. Derr shot his last five holes five under par and won the match on the extra hole.

Derr meets Al Espinosa of Chicago today.

The masterful shots of Walter Hagen, New York, on the last nine holes were too much for Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, who had been up on the early holes and Hagen won, four and three.

Hagen and Johnny Farrell, New York, are matched today. Farrell eliminated Willie MacFarlane of Tuckahoe, N. Y., two and one yesterday.

Jim Barnes, Pelham, N. Y., hopelessly outclassed Ed Townes, Pittsburgh, ten and nine, and meets Emmett French, Youngstown, O., today. French disposed of Monte Durtora, Aberdeen, Wash., three and one yesterday.

Espinosa went into the third round by defeating Francis Gallett, Laurelton, N. Y., four and three, while Ciuci downed Dan Williams, Westfield, N. J., four and two.

Cleveland—Harry Greb, Pittsburgh windmill, defeated Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight, in a 10-round no decision here last night. Newspapersmen gave Greb all but no round of the fight.

Greensburg—Dr. Charles Bird is in the hospital here for an indefinite time. He rode a horse in the Defense day parade and was injured when the animal fell.

TIGERS PASS OUT OF
AMERICAN LEAGUE RACE

Yankees Take Advantage Of Opportunities And Work Their Way Back To Tie With Senators

VICTORS IN DOUBLE HEADER

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 18—Taking another unexpected licking from the Philadelphia Athletics, the Detroit Tigers practically have passed out of the American League pennant race.

Keeping up a season long inconsistency, the Tigers have failed to hold their stride in the soft places and their chances to get into the world series have just about gone.

The Tigers have nine more games to play. If they should happen to win all nine of them, the leading Yankees and Senators would have to win only five out their remaining 11 games to finish ahead of them.

The Yankees took advantage of opportunity yesterday and worked their way back into a tie with the Washington Senators for first place in the American League race.

The champions took a double header from the St. Louis Browns while the Senators were disposing of the Cleveland Indians in one game. Neither the champions nor young Back Harris' club are cracking under the terrific strain and it looks like a battle right up to the wire.

Bad weather kept all the National League teams idle yesterday and there was no change in the standings.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Walter Johnson, veteran Washington pitcher, won his 12th consecutive game when he pitched the Senators to a 3 to 2 victory over Cleveland.

The Yanks moved into a tie for first place when they took a twin bill from St. Louis 7-3 and 8-7.

Connie Mack's crew wild in the ninth inning, scoring four runs and winning from Detroit 9 to 8.

The White Sox moved into seventh place by their 3 to 2 victory over the Red Sox.

The National League was rained out.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

New York, Sept. 18—Managers of Jack Renault, light heavyweight and Harry Wills, dusky ring man who recently conquered Luis Firpo, probably will meet some time this week to arrange a fight between the two.

New York—Pancho Villa, fly-weight champion, who is under an eight months' suspension, is having several medical examinations in order to re-open his case before the boxing commission. He claims to have a bad shoulder which prevents training.

Bowman Packs Real Speed

CHET BOWMAN BUCKING
SYRACUSE University, in Chester Bowman, has one of the fleetest football backs in captivity. Chet, besides being a gridiron star, is a great track man and was one of the American Olympic team stars.

THE SHOULDER STRAPS.

Just by way of showing that Chet has many things in common with a race horse, you see him here in a harness rigging. The stunt he's doing is part of the football seasoning and is called "bucking the shoulder straps."

Power Some Men Exert

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 18—Jockeys like Tod Sloan and Earl Sande, it has been said, get more out of their mounts than any other rider could.

There may be nothing to it, but it is a good yarn told around the track that Sloan and Sande put talk in the ears of their mounts that did more good than a whip.

Sande seldom used any punishment to get some extra energy out of his mounts, so there must have been something in his method of handling and coaxing a horse that got results.

Sande is the only jockey who could ever do anything with Mad Hatter, the rogue of the Rancocas stable. When he was asked recently in the hospital in Saratoga, Springs how he handled him, the star jockey replied: "I just fool the old fellow. Try to make him think he isn't running. If I forced him he'd get stubborn and quit."

The same wizardry that Sande possesses in the saddle and the same magic that the late "Pop" Geers seemed to exert on the lines of a trotter, Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, seems to have in handling men.

It never has been explained by what means Robinson gets what he does out of ordinary ball players, but there is much in the sobriquet that he carries around the major leagues—"Uncle Robby." The name "Muggsy", which John McGraw used to carry around and which he has succeeded in living down, was suggestive of his theory of driving a club but the "Uncle", which has been pinned affectionately on Robby, suggests a policy of management entirely different, but successful as well.

Ball players all work for Robby. They play better than they ever

All Maxwell dealers are in position to extend the convenience of time payments. Ask about Maxwell's attractive plan.

The engineering group who share credit for the sweeping success of the good Maxwell, have high reputations to maintain.

You will realize how much that statement means when you remember that these men designed the Chrysler Six.

It is the same group which has built into the good Maxwell, performance worthy of a car three times its price.

If you examine into the basic reasons for such performance, and for Maxwell's economical, care-free service, you discover things like these:

That both the new transmission and new rear axle are strong and rugged enough for a truck.

That the extensive use of fine bearings eliminates friction to such an extent that with one hand you can roll the car on a level floor or street.

That the heavy, perfectly balanced crankshaft floats on a film of oil maintained under force-feed pressure in its oversize bearings—thus reducing wear to the point where there is practically no need for bearing replacement.

That the release or throwout bearing of the new clutch—often a prolific cause of trouble and expense because of poor lubrication—is positively and automatically lubricated from the transmission.

That at all vital points the good Maxwell uses the same kinds of alloy and heat-treated steels employed in the costliest cars.

That in proportion to weight, it is actually stronger than cars costing two, three or even four times as much.

That the rear axle drive pinion, which bears the brunt of propelling the car, is rigidly mounted on bearings which preserve permanent alignment and quiet.

That the frame, in addition to its unusual depth of six inches is braced by six stout cross members.

Such superiority in material, in construction, in engineering design, is bringing new thousands to the conviction that the Maxwell is not only a good car, but that it is actually better than anything at anywhere near its price.

PEOPLE ARE GATHERING FOR ANNUAL ROUND-UP

Best Riders and Surest Ropers Begin to Match Skill For Titles at Pendleton, Ore.

75,000 EXPECTED TO ATTEND

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 18—Thousands of persons were pouring into this crowded western city today for the annual Round-up.

The best riders, the surest ropers and the quickest bulldozers in the world began to match their skill for championship titles in sports of the cattle ranges.

The streets of Pendleton are like the most glamorous setting in a Western novel. All day rode picturesque cowboys with the inevitable sombreros bandanas and chaps.

In even brighter attire, Indian braves and squaws of many tribes were seen on the downtown streets and in the teepee city at the outskirts of town.

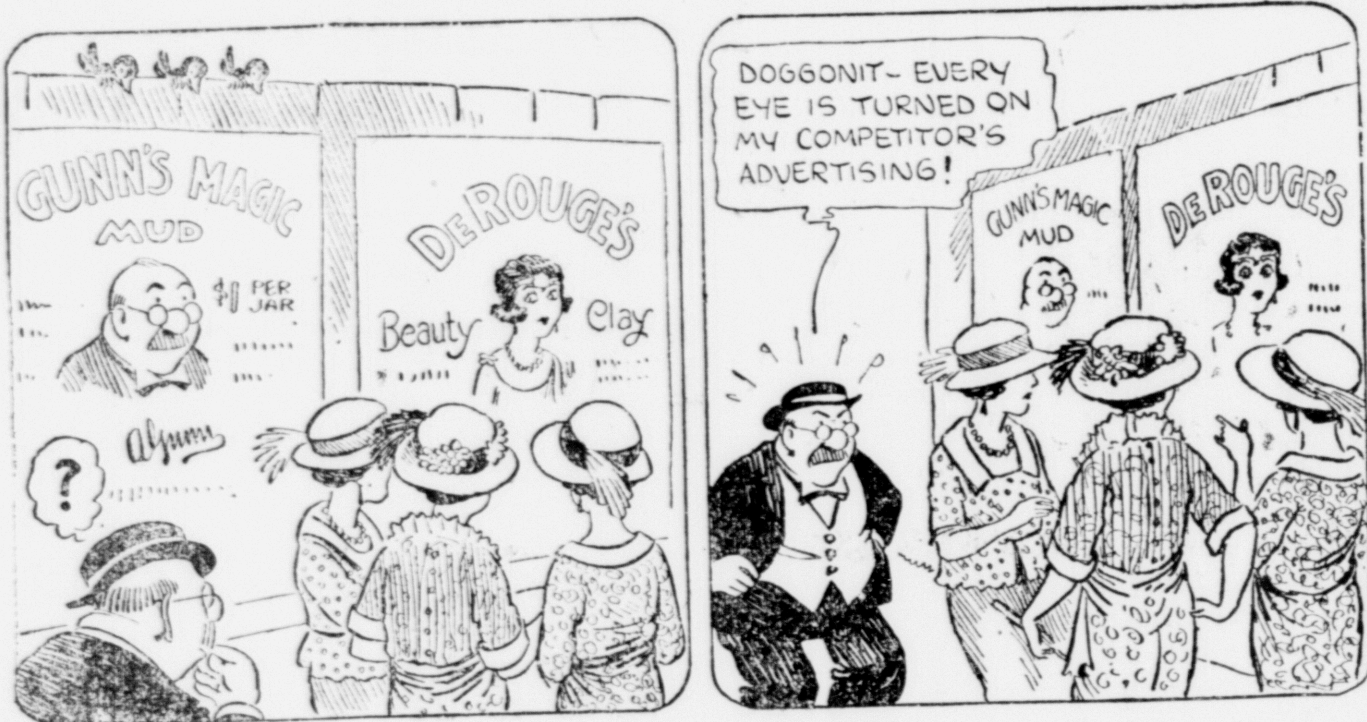

This great pageant of the west is no small affair. Officials of the Round-Up estimated that gate admissions at the giant arena, which seats 40,000 persons, would reach 75,000 for the three days of the show.

Never in the early days of the cattle ranges, before fences and oil fields invaded the cattlemen's territory was such a round-up staged. In those days the round-up season was marked by such activities as were seen here today, but not on so extensive a scale.

Yet the show does not lack in reality.

From the time that the grand parade starts in the arena, spirited horses and bucking bronchos speed away with their riders or fling them into the dust. Clattering hoofs are everywhere. Cowgirls and cowboys throw lariats with precision over the hoofs of rangy steers.

SERVICE CHARGE ORDER RESCINDED

The copy of this resolution was forwarded to the Spiceland Telephone Company, asking if they would concur without the formality of a hearing. The Spiceland Telephone company replied as follows:
"Mr. Maurice Douglass, Commissioner Public Service Commission of Indiana

Indianapolis, Indiana.
"We have before us your letter of the 11th, in which we are informed that the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana has requested your Commission for an order that our service connection charges be discontinued for a period of six months, in a measure we would submit to such an order from your Commission without further protest of the formality of another hearing, we freely submit to the suspension of service connection charges, but we believe that the charge for moving a telephone set from one location on the same premises should not be canceled we have in mind that we are only protecting our subscribers by eliminating in most cases an unnecessary expense as all such expenses must be charged to the operation of the plant and consequently must be taken into consideration in the finding of rates, it is our desire to cooperate with the public under the laws that we are compelled by the public to operate under and we will submit to the order that the Public Service Commission of Indiana will see fit to make in this matter.

CHARLES NELSON GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT

Six Years Ago Tanlac Brought Him Health and Strength That Has Lasted—Appetite, Digestion and Nerves in Good Shape

"When I think about the good health I have enjoyed the past six years, I can't help but speak right out for Tanlac, the medicine that gave it to me," recently declared Charles Nelson, 1416 Stophlet St., Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Six years ago, it looked like everything was wrong with me. My appetite was no good, what I did eat hurt me, and nervousness, constipation, dizziness, heart palpitation, headaches and back pains all pulled me down to where I could get scarcely any peace or rest day or night.

"Tanalac certainly opened my eyes. Why, I was so weak I could hardly drag myself to work, but when I finished taking Tanlac I could work all day and still feel good. It put my appetite, digestion and nerves in order so I ate extra heavy, and slept like a top, and it left me in fine condition. As a tonic and builder, Tanlac stands out foursquare."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation, made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN MOTHERS

Worn Out Caring for Children and Housework—See how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps

Indianapolis, Indiana—"I was in a very nervous and run-down condition while nursing my baby, and hearing some talk of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began taking it. From the second bottle I noticed a big improvement, and I am still taking it. I am not a bit nervous now, and feel like a different person. It is a great medicine for any one in a nervous, run-down condition and I would be glad to give any one advice about taking it. The important thing about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is that it does help women suffering from the ailments common to their sex.

If you are nervous and run-down and have pains in your lower parts and in your back, remember that the Vegetable Compound has relieved other women having the same symptoms. For sale by druggists everywhere.

MOVIES

"For Sale." Princess

One lesson which "For Sale," the First National picture at the Princess theatre today teaches, is that gasoline and whiskey will not mix. Those who are wont to look at the wine while it is red and then expect to turn the highway into an automobile speedway may wake up suddenly finding themselves bidding good morning to St. Peter. Driving while under the influence of liquor also often carries with it a vacation in a whitewashed cell.

The danger which reckless driving carries is graphically shown in a situation in this gripping photoplay of American society life, where one of the characters, a part played by Jack Patrick, meets his death in a thrilling automobile crash.

The accident, due to the recklessness of the intoxicated driver, is one of the many dramatic highlights of this absorbing story. An expensive high-powered machine was run into a tree and completely wrecked by the producers in order to get camera realism.

"For Sale" features a coterie of blunder's greatest players, including Claire Windsor, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Ellis, Tully Marshall, Vera Reynolds, Frank Elliott and Christine Mayo.

DYNAMITE LETS GO, TWO MEN HURT

Premature Explosion of Charge in Stone Quarry Near Moscow Results in Serious Injuries

G. BARLOW MAY NOT RECOVER

Amputation of Right Leg. Broken in Two Places. May Prove Necessary—Harry Spaulding Cut, Bruised

Gabriel Barlow, age 70 was seriously injured and Harry Spaulding, age 45, was badly cut and bruised, when a charge of dynamite exploded prematurely at the stone quarry near Moscow at noon Wednesday.

Both men are in a serious condition, but the extent of the injuries suffered by the older man may prove fatal.

They were engaged in breaking up the rocks at the stone quarry, located in the southwest part of the county, near Moscow. When the explosion happened, the rocks and pieces of earth went in all directions, and the two men were in the midst of it.

Mr. Barlow received a severe blow on his right leg, breaking it in 2 pieces, between the ankle and knee, and on account of his advanced age it was thought that an amputation would be necessary. Dr. W. T. Lampton of Milroy attended the men.

Mr. Barlow also was badly bruised and shaken, and may develop some internal complications. Mr. Spaulding, who was within five feet of the charge was shot by pieces of rock that struck him in the face and right side of his body, also bruising and cutting him.

Both men were almost holding the charge when in some manner the fuse burned to the cap before they were aware of the fact that it was upon them.

Mr. Barlow, the older man, was preparing to place the charge in the rocks, when the explosion happened and he received the full force, that broke his leg and otherwise injured him.

LEADING DEMOCRATS OF ILLINOIS GREET DAVIS

PARADE IN LOOP DISTRICT

Chicago, Sept. 13—Leading Democrats of Illinois greeted John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, on his arrival from Des Moines here today. George W. Brennan, Illinois "boss," and national Committeeman Col. A. A. Sprague, Democratic candidate for United States senator, and others headed a huge crowd and several bands in the procession to the office of Mayor Dwyer.

After a few moments with Dwyer, Davis was paraded through the Loop to his hotel. Davis speaks in the stockyards district tonight.

On board Davis special enroute to Chicago, Sept. 13—Since crossing the Mississippi, John W. Davis, Democratic standard bearer has espoused Woodrow Wilson's policies one by one, until today as he turns eastward he stands for the same principles that won the west for Wilson in 1916.

Davis advisers are somewhat worried because the candidate has gone a step further in following the leadership of Wilson. His enthusiastic advocacy of American membership in the League of Nations which brought the downfall of Wilson in 1919 and the defeat of James M. Cox in 1920 gives them concern because of the lingering hostility to the League in the east.

Indiana is 18th Among States in Export Trade

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 13—Indiana stood eighteenth among the states in export trade for the first six months of 1924, according to figures of the department of commerce at Washington, received here today. Indiana's total export business was $28,983,891. Automotive commodities led in exports, amounting to $5,965,333.

SEEKS TO PLACE BLAME ON HOLMES

Defense Attempts to Show he is Responsible for Separation For Which he Blames Buell

HIS ILLNESS DISCUSSED

Physicians not Permitted to Testify Regarding Ailment—Evidence in Alienation Suit

The defense today took their fling at the testimony in the $10,000 alienation suit, being tried in the circuit court, in which Harley D. Holmes is plaintiff and Albert Buell, defendant, and in which the plaintiff charges the defendant with stealing his wife's affection from him.

A portion of the evidence being introduced today by the defense attempted to show that the defendant was not responsible for the alleged stolen affections, but that the plaintiff himself had caused the separation.

Intimations along this line indicated that the defense would charge the plaintiff with having violated his marriage vows with his wife, over whom the law suit is based. His crippled condition, being unable to walk, was today being attacked by the attorneys for the defense as being the direct cause for the separation, although medical authority was not permitted to testify in the case.

Frank Hall, a witness for the defendant, testified that he had accompanied the plaintiff on a visit to the office of Dr. Houghland several years ago, and witnessed the examination. He stated that Holmes was unsteady on his feet and shaky with his hands, at that time. He did not hear what the physician had analyzed the ailment.

Dr. Houghland, when he testified, was unable to answer questions that concerned the ailment, because of objections offered by the plaintiff's attorneys, and which were sustained by the court. The court ruled that other persons who had direct knowledge of the facts, could testify along that line, but it is not proper for a physician to disclose private treatments of a patient.

It was clearly brought out today during the trial as other witnesses were examined that the defense intended to launch their attack on the plaintiff for having "sown wild oats" earlier in life, and that his wife had left him, and the defendant had not stolen the affections.

Hall, when he testified, said that on one occasion several years ago, Holmes had told him that he wished he had never married, and remarked, according to the witness, that "he had been in jail," some (Continued on Page Three)

ASKS ALIMONY IN SUM OF $15,000

Dorothea Brooks, Who Was 16 Years Old When Married, Seeks Divorce From Don Brooks, 56

WANTS $25 A WEEK SUPPORT

Alleges Husband, on Account of His Age, Was Morose and Would Not Accompany Her Places

A complaint for divorce was filed today in the circuit court by Dorothea Brooks against Don C. Brooks, farmer or living east of Rushville, in which the plaintiff seeks $15,000 alimony and $25 a week support.

The complaint is quite lengthy and sets forth that they were married April 9, 1919 and separated September 12 of this year. She was 16 years old when married, and is 21 now, according to the suit, and he is 56 years old.

One of the chief allegations contained in the action says that the disparity in years has caused her life to be very lonely and devoid of interest.

On account of his age, she says, he failed to accompany her to places that would entertain them or afford a diversion, and that because of his morose disposition, they never had company or acquaintances to visit them.

When she is ill, he fails to attend to her, or provide a nurse, according to the suit, and for the past year he is charged with having failed to co-habit with her.

In her action, she says the defendant is quite wealthy, and that her physical condition does not enable her to work, and she seeks $25 a week support, and alimony in the sum of $15,000.

Scout Notes

Next Tuesday afternoon and evening all troops will meet for reorganization and to talk over plans for the year.

At four o'clock troop two will meet, with troop four following at five o'clock. After supper boys from troops one and three will meet together at seven-thirty o'clock. All of these meetings will be held at the Havens School and the boys are requested to enter the building by way of the fire escape.

OUR DAILY BOOST

When a county can produce $3,000,000 worth of corn in one year and at the same time raise other grains and market livestock on a scale that places it ahead of any other county, the county is on the highway to prosperity.

Conservative estimates place the Rush county corn crop at three million bushels this year and the price will be $1 per bushel, if not more, according to present indications.

The milestones denoting hard times have been passed.

COOLIDGE TAKES TIME TO WRITE ADDRESSES

Curtails Engagements to Prepare for Three Speeches to be Delivered During Next 2 Weeks

REVIEWS MARINE COLUMN

Washington, Sept. 13—With three speaking engagements scheduled for the next two weeks, President Coolidge has curtailed his engagement list, to gain time for the writing of his addresses.

The president will appear before the congress of Holy Name Societies here Sunday. His next engagements are in Philadelphia, September 25 and at the dedication of the first division monument here Oct. 4.

There has been considerable speculation as to whether the president would touch on the Ku Klux Klan question in his address to the catholic organization, but it is understood they have let it be known they prefer he would not.

Mr. Coolidge today reviewed a column of marines returning from maneuvers on the Antietam battlefield and talked with John Barrett, former director of the Pan-American union and now identified with the Republican campaign organization.

Views Wreckage of His Car and Refuses Assistance

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 13—His automobile completely wrecked by the west bound Twentieth Century Limited, Ray Wilson, 29, escaped with but minor bruises at Ernsberger today. Hurled from the car by the impact Wilson got to his feet, viewed the wreckage and walked to his home refusing a lift offered by motorists.

SERVICE CHARGE ORDER RESCINDED

Spiceland And Mays Telephone Subscribers Will Not Have to Pay Connection Fee of $2

COMPANY TO MAKE REBATES

Many Who Withdrew When New Rates Became Effective August 1 are Expected to Return

On the petition of the Spiceland Commercial club, the public service commission of Indiana has rescinded its order providing for a service connection charge of $2 per connection and ordered a rebate of such charges paid since August 1 when the order became effective, along with a new schedule of rates.

A copy of the order was received here today from the state commission. It affects patrons of the Spiceland and Mays exchanges, which are owned by the Spiceland company.

Many subscribers have had their phones removed since the higher rates went into effect, but it is believed that the rescinding of the service connection charge will have the effect of bringing many of the old subscribers back.

On June 27, 1924, the commission issued its original order in this case, in which the Spiceland Cooperative Telephone company was authorized to increase its rates and establish a service connection charge of $2.00 per connection.

Immediately after the date set for the order to go into effect, many telephones were ordered removed. On August 29, 1924, the Commercial club of Spiceland, Indiana, passed the following resolution, which was duly certified and transmitted to the commission:

"Spiceland, Indiana, August 29, 1924.

"Be it resolved that the President and Secretary are hereby authorized on behalf of the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana, to petition the Public Service Commission of Indiana, asking that they order the Spiceland Cooperative Telephone Company of Spiceland, Indiana to discontinue all service connection charges for a period of 6 months.

"I certify that the above is a true and correct copy of a resolution unanimously adopted by the members of the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana at a meeting held by them August 28, 1924.

"(Signed) V. T. Davis, Secretary" Under date of September 11, 1924. (Continued on Page Seven)

BRING UP NAVY SEA POWER

American Legion Convention Resolutions Urge Action by Congress

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13—The American Legion national convention today urged congress and the navy department to bring the United States navy sea power up to the terms of the 5-5-3 ratio of the naval armament agreement.

POULTRY SCHOOL IN COUNTY LIKELY

Petition For One to be Sent to Purdue Following Tour of County With Prof. L. L. Jones

THREE FARMS ARE VISITED

Constructive Criticism and Suggestions for Development—School Attendance to be Guaranteed

A poultry school for Rush county will probably be the outcome of the poultry tour conducted by Prof. Lloyd L. Jones of the agricultural extension department of Purdue university Wednesday afternoon.

Three Rush county poultry farms were visited during the tour and Prof. Jones offered constructive criticism and suggestions regarding their development.

It was announced during the tour that Purdue was planning a series of two-day poultry schools in Indiana counties next winter and that every county that guarantees an attendance of fifty will get one of the schools.

Sentiment prevailed among those on the tour that one could be supported in this county and Herschel VanMatre, county agent, was requested to place Rush county's petition for one at once. The school will be held between December 1 and the middle of next March.

The tour started at Clifford Powers' farm northwest of Milroy, in Anderson township, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. There the tourists found a new poultry house 40 by 19 feet the construction of which Prof. Jones said he could not criticize.

In a short talk Prof. Jones pointed out a number of things over which there had been disagreement, regarding poultry house construction, and discussed the advantages and disadvantages of each.

The crowd was taken to a pen of capons belonging to Mr. Powers and Prof. Jones talked for a few minutes on the possibilities of feeding, developing and marketing them.

The party arrived at Ray Selby's farm, a quarter of a mile west of the Powers farm, at 2:15. Mr. Selby has recently built a new poultry house and remodeled an old one. Prof. Jones went into detail in regard to the remodeling of old houses, in order to get the best results from them.

Mr. Selby had a number of White Leghorn hens penned up and Prof. Jones handled them and pointed out characteristics of hens from which high egg production could be expected. He emphasized the confirmation of the male and the necessity of giving him more than ordinary consideration.

SEVENTEEN ATTEND CLINIC

One Held Wednesday is Best of Series in County This Year

The tuberculosis clinic held at Dr. Frank H. Green's office Wednesday was the best of the three held in Rush county this year, according to a report from the Rush County Tuberculosis association, under whose auspices it was held.

Seventeen patients visited the clinic during the day and there was a fine response from physicians over the county to the appeal for co-operation. Miss Hollowell, Rushville visiting nurse, assisted.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. E. M. Amos of Indianapolis.

IS SURPRISED TO FIND LAND CHEAP

Charles Norris of Des Moines, Iowa, Formerly of This City, Comments on The Reasons

WHAT IOWA LAND BRINGS

Carries Authentic Reports to Show That Prices Range From $150 to $312.50 an Acre

Charles Norris of Des Moines, Iowa, formerly of this city, was astonished when he returned here for a visit, to find that Rush county land was selling so cheap, compared with Iowa land.

He carries with him a clipping from a Des Moines paper reporting sales of farm land ranging in price from $150 to $312.50.

"I soon found the reason for Rush county farm land selling so cheap," said Mr. Norris. "I stopped on the corner one day and asked a Rush county farmer what land could be bought for. He told me that it was selling around $100 an acre, but that it was not worth that much.

"That in a few words explains why Rush county land has not been bringing the prices that Iowa land has."

Following are dispatches from Iowa towns and cities, printed in a Des Moines paper, which are the evidence of the high prices prevailing there:

Boone, Ia.—That land in Boone county as well as in other sections of the state is "coming back" is evident from recent sales.

The 100 acre farm of Charles Jennings located one mile south of the Cordell crossing has just been sold to Judge H. E. Fry at $195 per acre. This is a sale for cash and does not involve any trade.

Recently the farm home of Judge Fry was struck by a storm and the buildings are now being wrecked and the material will be used to improve the Jennings' place, which, however, is already well improved. This purchase will give Judge Fry a farm of 182 acres on the Daniel Boone Trail, one of the best locations in this section of Iowa.

Farmers and real estate men are beginning to take notice of the higher prices paid for corn and other produce, local bankers state. This fact added to the splendid prospects for corn in this section of Iowa is calling attention of investors to Iowa land.

CRUSHING BLOW BY ATTACKING CHINESE

U. S. Marines and Other International Troops Mobilize for Protection of Countrymen

PANIC IN WAR ZONE EXPECTED

(By United Press)

Shanghai (9:30 p. m.) Sept. 13—United States Marines and other international troops were mobilizing for defense of their countrymen in the foreign settlements tonight, with a panic rush to Chinese from the war zone, expected at any moment.

The anticipated crushing blow against General Shuang's army before Shanghai, was struck this afternoon. His forces were routed and the victorious attacking troops broke through the lines and advanced on the city.

General Yuan launched an irresistible attack today after artillery preparations and Che Kiang's lines crumbled.

A mob of retreating soldiers and civilians bore back upon Shanghai and it was feared they would overrun the thin line of guards. More than 1,000 international marines and sailors were ordered to the gates and barriers of the settlements.

The victorious Chi Li troops headed a drive for the Woo Sung forts, nearest the sector guarded by American marines.

Three American destroyers, their guns trained on the forts were stripped for action and standing by.

Exact details of the fighting were not available.

LAUNCHES PLANS FOR INITIATIONS OF 500
Fortieth Anniversary Committee of Murat Shriners Organize Intensive Drive
CEREMONIAL DATE DEC. 5

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18.—Launching a campaign with the slogan "five hundred new members for December", the Fortieth Anniversary committee of Murat Temple of Mystic Shrine has organized what promises to be an intensive drive throughout the oasis of Indiana to round up "sons of the desert" who are willing to enter the caravan now forming to traverse the hot sands of the desert to the Shriners' Mecca.

Although the ceremonial date has been fixed for Friday, Dec. 5th "and several Arabic moons are yet to pass over the mosque of Murat" as the eloquent potentate, Charles J. Orison, puts it, it is announced that a complete campaign organization is being formed to insure the success of the forthcoming ceremonial session. Robert L. Elder has been appointed general chairman of the ceremonial membership committee and Edgar D. Hart secretary. Captains are being chosen for virtually every village, town and city in Indiana. It is announced, with the understanding that the drive will encompass every county with the exception of Vanderburg, Vigo, Allen and Lake, where sister temples of the Shrine exercise exclusive dominion.

RAGWEED IS POOR SILAGE

Bitterness May Affect Taste And Quality of Milk

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 16.—On account of the unusually abundant growth of ragweed in cornfields due to the abnormal weather conditions of the past season, a number of inquiries have been received by G. A. Williams of the dairy extension staff of Purdue university regarding the effect of ragweed in silage.

The juice of ragweed is exceedingly bitter and the objectionable flavor is apt to enter the milk when silage containing considerable quantities of ragweed is fed to dairy animals.

In addition, the presence of ragweed in the silage may impart a bad odor to dairy products. The bitter properties of ragweed are so well known that the plant is commonly called bitterweed in some parts of the country.

Silage can be fed safely to beef animals even if it contains ragweed.

Lafayette — Harold Alford held a stick of wood while his boy companion saw how close he could come with a hatchet. He came too close and Harold lost one finger tip and three other fingers were badly hurt.

Ottawa—Eugene Ogathorp could not work his pump. The handle would go up and down but no water came forth. He found a four foot black snake in the pipe.

Portland—Portland is looking for the nearest motorist. According to contractors he drove his automobile on a newly paved cement street. The street will have to be resurfaced.

Shelbyville—Clarence Baker, state motor policeman, believes in an eye for an eye. When David and Milton H. Justus, game wardens, arrested his father, Joseph Baker, for illegal seining, he arrested the Justus brothers for failure to have an auto license.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION FOR AUTO DRIVERS A FUTURE POSSIBILITY

What do the motor vehicle owners of Rush county think about the proposed legislation which would require all drivers to pass a physical examination and to pay a fee for a driver's license which license might be suspended with severe penalties for law violations?

This question is propounded at the request of the Hoosier State Auto Association, the state-wide organization of automobile owners, which seeks to feel the pulse of motorists throughout Indiana on this important matter.

"We are assuming that because of the frequent discussion of the drivers' license matter that the people generally are familiar with what it may mean to them," M. E. Noblet, secretary of the association states in a bulletin just issued. "Our directors, representing every congressional district in the state, and the officers and directors of affiliated motor clubs and branch organizations of our association are eager to get their ears to the ground and to hear from owners generally on this matter. In the meantime we are making a study of the operation of similar laws in other states."

"The point is," Noblet continued, "Whether a drivers license law with rigid punishments provided, would serve to reduce accidents and fatalities on the highways of Indiana. No suggestion has been made in the discussion concerning a license as to what disposition might be made of such money, although it is conceivable that a good portion of this amount might be required to pay fees for examiners."

Today marked the third day of the trial. More interest was being shown in the case today, as witnesses were here from Connersville and Franklin county in the vicinity of Metamora, where the parties reside. Graydon Holmes, 13-year-old son of the plaintiff, was a witness for the defense, and admitted that he had not had any visits with his father for five years, and that he is living with his mother, keeping house for Mr. Buell, the defendant in the case.

On cross examination, the boy also stated that his father had failed to provide or support him, and that his mother was providing the support.

The law forbids the third person, in this case, Mrs. Holmes, from testifying.

CAMPAIGN DAY BY DAY

(By United Press)

Democratic leaders learned with mingled feelings John W. Davis's open espousal of Woodrow Wilson's policies. The candidate's declaration in favor of the League of Nations before a group of Iowa women cheered a considerable faction of the party and disheartened others who bore in mind Cox's defeat in 1920 on the same issue.

Interest in the independent campaign centered on a speech by Senator LaFollette at Madison Square Garden in New York tonight.

"Fighting Bob" is expected to cite evidences of mis-rule in the two old parties and generally flay the activities of the present government. Senator Wheeler, his running mate, continued his attack on Daugherty and the "Ohio gang" in his Ohio tour.

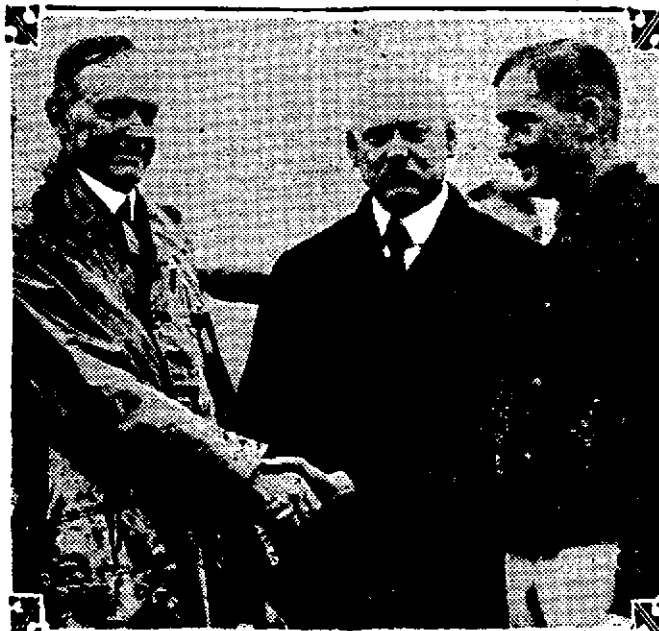

Republican managers were encouraged at first results of the Literary Digest's poll of the nation's voters. They pointed out the poll is compared to that of 1920, shows only a slight loss for Coolidge as against the vote for Harding.

Keep the Home Fires Burning

Did you ever stop to think that the homefolks appreciated more than anyone else, good appearances. They dearly love for us to look spick and span—to have our clothes properly cleaned and pressed. "Doesn't Daddy look nice?" is a common compliment paid many of our regular customers when they go home with a newly cleaned and pressed suit from our establishment.

Keep the home fires burning—good cleaning and pressing will do it.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
The feast of harmony—Beter is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.—Proverbs 17:1.
Prayer:—O our God, may Thy spirit so possess us that we shall live righteously, and then Thine will make even our enemies to be at peace with us.

Well Earned Prosperity
One of the reasons for the firm business confidence that now exists, even though this is presidential year, lies in the fact that our present prosperity and our bright future prospects are based on the products of the soil. That is real American prosperity, substantial and well earned.
Money's plentiful, credits are high and unemployment is at a minimum. These are the groundwork for the belief prevailing that the business tide is coming in rapidly.
There is ample ground for the premise that times are better because of the improvement in agriculture.
The middle-west's wheat crop is probably the best ever grown, exceeding last year's crop by 119,981,000 bushels. At the average farm price of August 1, this crop had a value of $133,500,000 greater than the value of the 1923 crop. This enables the farmer to re-establish his credits and to become a big factor in the buying market.
The corn crop gives promise of exceeding the record established by the wheat crop. If weather conditions continue favorable, despite the poor start, the yield will average good and the price that is in prospect will be a further aid in putting the farmer back on his feet financially.
Dollar corn is now predicted, and many foresee even higher prices for the great midwest crop, that is doing its part in the great movement to restore the tiller of the soil to his rightful position.
It is estimated that the Rush county corn crop will make three million bushels. Three million dollars poured into the laps of Rush county farmers will be a tidy sum and it will be welcome to those who have seen hard times for the past four years.

Let "Gets-It" End Your Corns
This Corn Remedy Is Guaranteed
The "Gets-It" painless way to end corns forever is miles ahead of any thing else. Try it. Simply apply two or three drops to any corn or callus. In two minutes all pain will have stopped completely. Soon you can peel the corn or callus right off with your fingers, root and all. Costs but a trifle. Satisfactory results guaranteed with your corn or money back. E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. the production, distribute or distribution, exhibit or promote the exhibition or aid in any way whatsoever in the production, distribution or exhibition of motion pictures which, "because of the unfit character of title, story, exploitation or picture itself, do not meet the requirements of what amounts to a code of ethics adopted by the association."
The preamble to the resolutions places the members of the association back of a "continuing effort to establish and maintain the highest possible moral and artistic standards of motion picture production." It is set forth that every attempt will be made to prevent the prevalent type of book and play to become the prevalent type of picture.
Will H. Hay, the czar of moviedom, is credited with bringing about the changed attitude of the producers and distributors. It all sounds very interesting, but what the public wants to see is the fruits of the announced intentions of the producers to establish the "highest possible moral" standards in the industry.
There is plenty of room for improvement in the motion picture industry and everyone who enjoys a good, clean show is pulling for the organization to live up to its code of ethics.
The lurid sex plays that have replaced the wild western holdup dramas of a few years ago have no place on the screen. They are frequently mild compared with that which they are pictured to be in the advance announcements.
Improvement in advertising methods of the distributors would be a great aid to the producers in living up to their avowed purpose.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY
From Daily Republican
Saturday, Sept. 18, 1909
Friday was Mayor Cowing's lucky day. For those many months, his Honor has been fishing, fishing frequently, sometimes every day, for two days. Yesterday he went fishing and last night he came home with a broad smile and a nice bass. The bass weighed 13-4 pounds and was the largest the mayor ever caught in Flatrock.
There will be no services at the United Presbyterian and the Presbyterian churches tomorrow night as these two churches will unite in a service at St. Paul's M. E. church. This service was arranged by the pastors of the two churches who felt that some mark of appreciation of Dr. Tevis's work should be shown before he leaves. Dr. Tevis is closing a seven year's pastorate here.
It was a happy lot who returned last night from Liberty with victory tucked under their belts in the first game of the season. The Rushville high school football team journeyed all the way to Liberty yesterday afternoon to take on the high school eleven for a contest. The Rushville team lined up as follows: L. E. O'Neal; L. T. Wilcox; L. G. Stiffler; C. Wallace; R. G. Humes; R. T. Moffett; R. L. Norris; Q. Back; Gunning; L. Half; McRoberts; R. Half; Hiner, and F. Back, Winslip.
The basket ball team of the Manilla high school will again be in evidence this year. The team will present the same line up as that of last year, which is as follows: Ralph Fox, G. Orme Gardner, G. Clayton F. Rigbee, F. Verle Bebout, C. and Glenn Carr, F. Fred Sheldon will act as substitute.
Miss Hazel Lytle will leave Monday for Evanston, Ill., where she will take a special course in music in Northwestern University.
Miss Nelle Lyons and Ethel Roller will be the guests of Miss Edith Buntz in Brookville Sunday.
One of the most elaborate social events of the season took place yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Manzy in North Harrison street when a reception and dinner was given in honor of Hugh Mawzy and bride, formerly Miss Anna Ross of Richmond.
Miss Marie Crosby is hostess for several young women with a bridge and tennis party at the country club this afternoon and tonight. An elaborate supper will be served.
Harry Wyatt of North Main street is better today and will be able to resume his duties in a few days.
Miss Dove Meredith, who has been ill at her home in North Morgan street with an attack of peritonitis, is considerably improved.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER
BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON — Women's progress in politics will be demonstrated within the next few weeks of the presidential campaign. For the first time in history, the wives of candidates on a presidential ticket will take to the stump as real political helpmates to their husbands.
The women who will blaze this new trail of political action will be Mrs. Belle La Follette and Mrs. Lulu Wheeler, wives of the Independent candidates for president and vice president respectively.
Mrs. La Follette's first speech of the campaign probably will be made at an Independent-Progressive rally scheduled for some near-by point in Maryland. Mrs. Wheeler, who will accompany her husband on his tour into the middle west and west, will address gatherings, particularly of women, in the same towns where Senator Wheeler speaks.
ALTHOUGH this will be a new experience for the nation—having the wives of presidential and vice presidential candidates speaking from the stump—it will be no new experience for the two women.
Campaigning for their husbands is an old story to them. True, this will be their first venture as orators in a national campaign. But as each of them has always been her husband's right-hand assistant in campaigns for minor offices, even including their campaign for the Senate, they see no reason why they should not participate equally now that their husbands head a presidential ticket.
Being both progressive and independent wives, they're going to proceed on that basis. Conservative folks may frown, but they don't expect to win the conservative vote for their ticket, anyway!
THIS move by the wives of the Independent candidates may be the solution to the puzzle that has been bothering the

FORMER DOWNS SARAZEN

Fights Uphill Battle all the Way to Defeat Man who has Twice Worn
National Crown

(By United Press)

French Lick, Ind., Sept. 18—Out of comparative obscurity two new golf stars loomed suddenly today as strong contenders for the title in the national professional golf tourney.

The new bidders for national honors are Larry Nabholz, of Lima, O., and Ray Derr of Glenside, Pa., both youthful players and little known in the world of golf.

Nabholz dethroned Gene Sarazen, Briarcliffe, N. Y., twice wearer of the professional crown, in an exhibition of brilliant golf yesterday and meets Henry Ciuci, White Plains, N. Y., in the third round of match play today.

Nabholz fought an uphill battle to down Sarazen, who was two up at the end of morning play. At the 27th hole the Ohioan overcame the lead and outplayed Sarazen on the way in.

Bobby Cruickshank, Westfield, N. J., furnished another upset when he fell before the sensational finish of Derr after being up most of the day. Derr shot his last five holes five under par and won the match on the extra hole.

Derr meets Al Espinosa of Chicago today.

The masterful shots of Walter Hagen, New York, on the last nine holes were too much for Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, who had been up on the early holes and Hagen won, four and three.

Hagen and Johnny Farrell, New York, are matched today. Farrell eliminated Willie MacFarlane of Tuckahoe, N. Y., two and one yesterday.

Jim Barnes, Pelham, N. Y., hopelessly outclassed Ed Townes, Pittsburgh, ten and nine, and meets Emmett French, Youngstown, O., today. French disposed of Morte Dutra, Aberdeen, Wash., three and one yesterday.

Espinosa went into the third round by defeating Francis Gallett, Laureton, N. Y., four and three, while Ciuci downed Dan Williams, Westfield, N. J., four and two.

Cleveland—Harry Greb, Pittsburgh windmill, defeated Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight, in a 10-round no decision here last night. Newspapermen gave Greb all but one round of the fight.

Greensburg—Dr. Charles Bird is in the hospital here for an indefinite time. He rode a horse in the defense day parade and was injured when the animal fell.

TIGERS PASS OUT OF
AMERICA LEAGUE RACE

VICTORS IN DOUBLE HEADER

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 18—Taking another unexpected licking from the Philadelphia Athletics, the Detroit Tigers practically have passed out of the American League pennant race.

Keeping up a season long inconsistency, the Tigers have failed to hold their stride in the soft places and their chances to get into the world series have just about gone. The Tigers have nine more games to play. If they should happen to win all nine of them, the leading Yankees and Senators would have to win only five out their remaining 11 games to finish ahead of them.

The Yankees took advantage of opportunity yesterday and worked their way back into a tie with the Washington Senators for first place in the American League race.

The champions took a double header from the St. Louis Browns while the Senators were disposing of the Cleveland Indians in one game. Neither the champions nor young Buck Harris' club are cracking under the terrific strain and it looks like a battle right up to the wire.

Bad weather kept all the National League teams idle yesterday and there was no change in the standings.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Walter Johnson, veteran Washington pitcher, won his 12th consecutive game when he pitched the Senators to a 3 to 2 victory over Cleveland.

The Yanks moved into a tie for first place when they took a twin bill from St. Louis 7-3 and 8-7. Connie Mack's crew wild in the ninth inning, scoring four runs and winning from Detroit 9 to 8.

The White Sox moved into seventh place by their 3 to 2 victory over the Red Sox.

The National League was rained out.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

New York, Sept. 18—Managers of Jack Renault, light heavyweight and Harry Wills, dusky ring man who recently conquered Luis Firpo, probably will meet some time this week to arrange a fight between the two.

New York—Pancho Villa, flyweight champion, who is under an eight months' suspension, is having several medical examinations in order to re-open his case before the boxing commission. He claims to have a bad shoulder which prevents training.

Power Some Men Exert

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Sept. 18—Jockeys like Tod Sloan and Earl Sande, it has been said, get more out of their mounts than any other rider could.

There may be nothing to it, but it is a good yarn told around the track that Sloan and Sande put talk in the ears of their mounts that did more good than a whip.

Sande seldom used any punishment to get some extra energy out of his mounts, so there must have been something in his method of handling and coaxing a horse that got results.

Sande is the only jockey who could ever do anything with Mad Hatter, the rogue of the Rancocas stable. When he was asked recently in the hospital in Saratoga, Springs how he handled him, the star jockey replied: "I just fool the old fellow. Try to make him think he isn't running. If I forced him he'd get stubborn and quit."

The same wizardry that Sande possesses in the saddle and the same magic that the late "Pop" Geers seemed to exert on the lines of a trotter, Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, seems to have in handling men.

It never has been explained by what means Robinson gets what he does out of ordinary ball players, but there is much in the sobriety that he carries around the major leagues—"Uncle Robby." The name "Muggsy," which John McGraw used to carry around and which he has succeeded in living down, was suggestive of his theory of driving a club but the "Uncle," which has been pinned affectionately on Robby, suggests a policy of management entirely different, but successful as well.

Ball players all work for Robby. They play better than they ever

It is the same group which has built into the good Maxwell, performance worthy of a car three times its price.

If you examine into the basic reasons for such performance, and for Maxwell's economical, care-free service, you discover things like these:

That both the new transmission and new rear axle are strong and rugged enough for a truck.

That the extensive use of fine bearings eliminates friction to such an extent that with one hand you can roll the car on a level floor or street.

That the heavy, perfectly balanced crankshaft floats on a film of oil maintained under force-feed pressure in its oversize bearings—thus reducing wear to the point where there is practically no need for bearing replacement.

cally no need for bearing replacement.

That the release or throwout bearing of the new clutch—often a prolific cause of trouble and expense because of poor lubrication—is positively and automatically lubricated from the transmission.

That at all vital points the good Maxwell uses the same kinds of alloy and heat-treated steels employed in the costliest cars.

That in proportion to weight, it is actually stronger than cars costing two, three or even four times as much.

That the rear axle drive pinion, which bears the brunt of propelling the car, is rigidly mounted on bearings which preserve permanent alignment and quiet.

That the frame, in addition to its unusual depth of six inches is braced by six stout cross members.

Such superiority in material, in construction, in engineering design, is bringing new thousands to the conviction that the Maxwell is not only a good car, but that it is actually better than anything at anywhere near its price.

For any store to be pleased with the merchandise they offer for sale—

Everyone likes his own opinion of things. But we've been more concerned about the style opinions of men and young men in the selection of fall clothes, than we have in our own ideas. The result is: We have the greatest display of styles we've ever offered. Everyone says so; you'll say so, too, when you see the suits and overcoats we had made for us. Many new, rich fall shades in beautiful patterns in the

That will surely appeal to your individual ideas. And they are priced reasonable, because we planned and bought wisely, and figured closely; that's our policy, you know.

We'll be glad to show you our line and solicit an early call while the selections are complete.

Our samples for the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Made-to-Measure line are here, too. Let our tailor take your measure.

PEOPLE ARE GATHERING FOR ANNUAL ROUND-UP

Best Riders and Surest Ropers Begin to Match Skill For Titles at Pendleton, Ore.

75,000 EXPECTED TO ATTEND

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 13—Thousands of persons were pouring into this crowded western city today for the annual Round-up.

The best riders, the surest ropers and the quickest bulldozers in the world began to match their skill for championship titles in sports of the cattle ranges.

The streets of Pendleton are like the most glamorous setting in a Western novel. All day rode picturesque cowboys with the inevitable sombreros bandannas and chaps.

In even brighter attire, Indian braves and squaws of many tribes were seen on the downtown streets and in the teepee city at the outskirts of town.

This great pageant of the west is no small affair. Officials of the Round-Up estimated that gate admissions at the giant arena, which seats 40,000 persons, would reach 75,000 for the three days of the show.

Never in the early days of the cattle ranges, before fences and oil fields invaded the cattlemen's territory was such a round-up staged. In those days the round up season was marked by such activities as were seen here today, but not on so extensive a scale.

Yet the show does not lack in reality.

From the time that the grand parade starts in the arena, spirited horses and backing bronchos speed away with their riders or fling them

The copy of this resolution was forwarded to the Spiceland Telephone Company, asking if they would concur without the formality of a hearing. The Spiceland Telephone Company replied as follows:
"Mr. Maurice Douglass, Commissioner
Public Service Commission of Indiana
Indianapolis, Indiana.

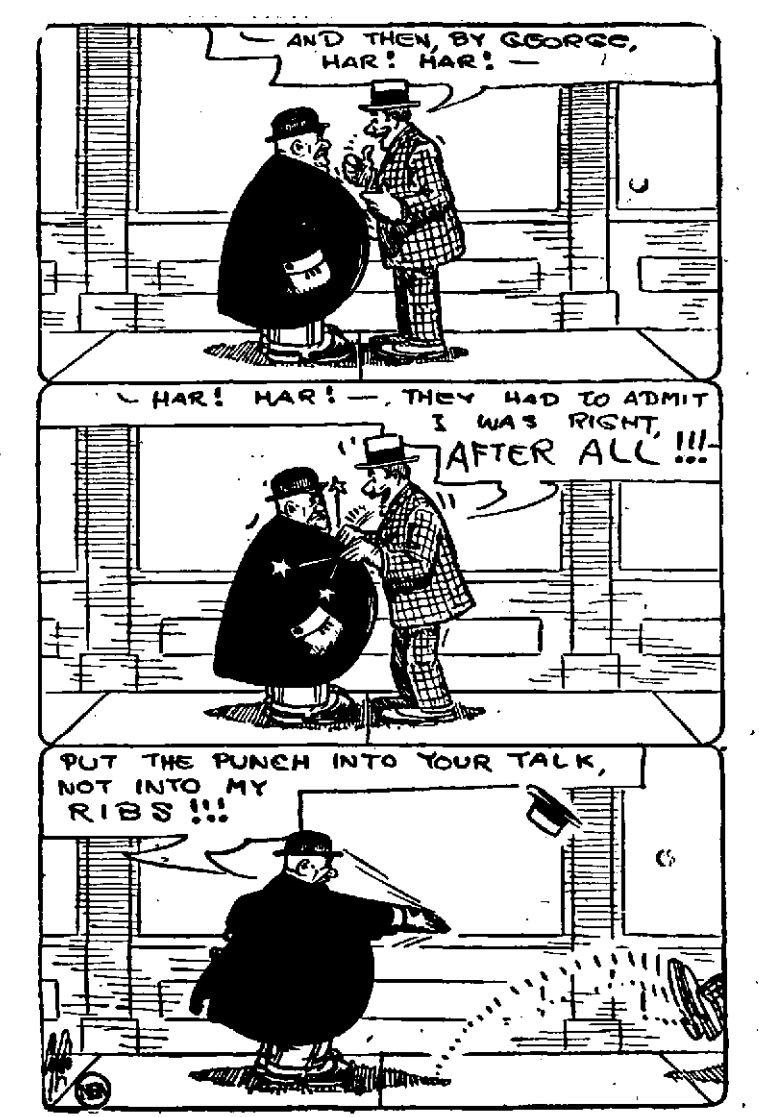

"We have before us your letter of the 11th, in which we are informed that the Commercial Club of Spiceland, Indiana has requested your Commission for an order that our service connection charges be discontinued for a period of six months, in a measure we would submit to such an order from your Commission without further protest of the formality of another hearing, we freely submit to the suspension of service connection charges, but we believe that the charge for moving a telephone set from one location on the same premises should not be canceled we have in mind that we are only protecting our subscribers by eliminating in most cases an unnecessary expense as all such expenses must be charged to the operation of the plant and consequently must be taken into consideration in the finding of rates, it is our desire to cooperate with the public under the laws that we are compelled by the public to operate under and we will submit to the order that the Public Service Commission of Indiana will see fit to make in this matter.

"Most respectfully yours,
"Spiceland Co-Operative Telephone Co.,

CHARLES NELSON GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT

Six Years Ago Tanlac Brought Him Health and Strength That Has Lasted—Appetite, Digestion and Nerves in Good Shape

"When I think about the good health I have enjoyed the past six years, I can't help but speak right out for Tanlac, the medicine that gave it to me," recently declared Charles Nelson, 1416 Stophlet St., Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Six years ago, it looked like everything was wrong with me. My appetite was no good, what I did eat hurt me, and nervousness, constipation, dizziness, heart palpitation, headaches and back pains all pulled me down to where I could get scarcely any peace or rest day or night. "Tanalac certainly opened my eyes. Why, I was so weak I could hardly drag myself to work, but when I finished taking Tanlac I could work all day and still feel good. It put my appetite, digestion and nerves in order so I ate extra heavy and slept like a top, and it left me in fine condition. As a tonic and builder, Tanlac stands out foursquare."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation, made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC. —Advertisement

NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN MOTHERS

Worn Out Caring for Children and Housework—See how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps

Indianapolis, Indiana.—"I was in a very nervous and run-down condition while nursing my baby, and hearing some talk of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began taking it. From the second bottle I noticed a big improvement, and I am still taking it. I am not a bit nervous now, and feel like a different person. It is a great medicine for any one in a nervous, run-down condition and I would be glad to give any one advice about taking it. I think there is no better medicine and give you permission to publish this letter." —Mrs. ANNA SMITH, 511 W. Norwood Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The important thing about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is that it does help women suffering from the ailments common to their sex.

If you are nervous and run-down and have pains in your lower parts and in your back, remember that the Vegetable Compound has relieved other women having the same symptoms. For sale by druggists everywhere.

MOVIES

"For Sale," Princess

One lesson which "For Sale," the First National picture at the Princess theatre today teaches, is that gasoline and whiskey will not mix. Those who are wont to look at the wine while it is red and then expect to turn the highway into an automobile speedway may wake up suddenly finding themselves bidding good morning to St. Peter. Driving while under the influence of liquor also often carries with it a vacation in a whitewashed cell.

The danger which reckless driving carries is graphically shown in a situation in this gripping photoplay of American society life, where one of the characters, a part played by Jack Patrick, meets his death in a thrilling automobile crash.

The accident, due to the recklessness of the intoxicated driver, is one of the many dramatic highlights of this absorbing story. An expensive high-powered machine was run into a tree and completely wrecked by the producers in order to get camera realism.

"For Sale" features a coterie of Hudson's greatest players, including Claire Windsor, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Ellis, Tully Marshall, Vera Reynolds, Frank Elliott and Christine Mayo.
